1. Introduction

In an unknown planet, the existence of animal spirits combined with humans has given rise to extraordinary abilities. Each human possesses a unique spirit, granting them the power to harness the traits and elements of that particular animal. Furthermore, there are four exceptional spirits known for their mastery over specific elements:

1. Blue Dragon – Thunder and Wind
2. White Whale – Water
3. Red Phoenix – Fire
4. Black Tiger – Earth

These four spirits, each bonded to a chosen individual, hold the responsibility of protecting the Earth from dark and malevolent forces. They have formed an organization called D.W.P.T., where individuals with spirits are trained to fulfil this noble duty.

Spirit Within

Spirit Within

The first four spirit users

The four spirits are also passed through the generations the spirit users will protect the earth from the dark or evil.

Coming to the present, there is a young boy named ray who doesn't have any animal spirit he looks little fat and his looks are average, he looks little dumb. But he is the one the main protagonist of the story.

Ray takes his first steps into the hallowed halls of the Etherean Institute, a prestigious college nestled within his hometown. It is a place brimming with awe-inspiring spirits and talented wielders. Excitement courses through his veins as he embarks on this new chapter of his life, eager to forge bonds and unravel the mysteries of this captivating world.

College of ray
name: Etherean Institute

As he enters his classroom, Ray is overwhelmed by the sheer beauty and diversity of his classmates. Each one possesses a spirit, radiating a unique aura that sets them apart.

Meanwhile there was a girl in that grabbed the attention of the ray, she is most beautiful in that class and also the best spirit user in that class, her name is Jenny and she is a user of peacock spirit. Ray was blushed while sawing her.

Yet, there is another figure that captures his attention - Julie, a non-spirit user much like Ray. Their shared position on the fringes of this spirit-infused world creates an unspoken bond, a connection forged by empathy and understanding.

Ray's path intertwines with that of Levi, a spirited individual whose animal spirit manifests as a nimble monkey. Their spirited conversations illuminate the wonders of this extraordinary realm. Ray's fascination grows as Levi regales him with tales of his prowess, leaping between branches and defying gravity with his simian agility.

Ray: "I never knew such a world existed with animal spirits and their abilities. It's fascinating!"

Levi: "Yeah, it's incredible what we can do with these spirits. I mean, look at me! I'm a monkey spirit user, and I can climb trees like nobody's business."

Ray: "Wow, there are so many beautiful girls in our class! I wonder who they are and what spirits they possess."

Levi: "Careful there, Ray. Some of those girls have bad attitudes, especially towards non-spirit users like you."

Ray: "Really? That's kind of unfair, don't you think?"

Levi: "Yeah, but what can we do? It's just the way things are. We'll just have to prove ourselves to them."

Later then All the spirit users in the class are bullying ray as he is a non spirit user and fat. But Levi helped ray to get rid of them. They had become a good friend in a short time.

After some days ray had texted to Jenny and Julie in a certain messaging app, And the jenny had a replied and Julie hadn't replied to him

Jenny and ray had talked a lot and ray taught she would be a good friend to him

Days turn into weeks, and Ray's indomitable spirit begins to shine. His strength and intellect become renowned within the college walls, attracting the attention and admiration of his peers. The once skeptical spirit wielders start to see beyond Ray's appearance, recognizing his unwavering determination and the depths of his potential.

As the summer break descends upon them, Ray finds solace and inspiration within the sacred confines of the Blue Dragon temple. He seeks guidance from the ancient deity, drawn to its immense power and wisdom. These visits become his sanctuary, fueling his resolve to uncover his own latent abilities. As he also becomes good friend with Julie too and they became like siblings in no time.

When the college gates reopen, Ray reunites with his newfound friends, their bond stronger than ever. Their laughter and camaraderie fill the hallways, a testament to the indelible connections formed amidst shared experiences. Each day presents an opportunity for growth and discovery, and Ray eagerly embraces the challenges that lie ahead.

On a particular day, there had been attack on college of ray by some masked people, they had attacked the all classes in the college and rays' class also.

They are teasing the girls in the class; they went after Jenny and the masked people are well trained with their spirits and they are powerful also. As they are powerful nobody in the class is helping Jenny, then one of the masked men who was a user of fox spirit goes to catch Jenny.

But suddenly he got a powerful hit, as the people can't see that they are not aware of that. The man with fox spirit, all people in the class are shocked by seeing that, the one who hit the man is none other than ray, AND he says "you didn't see that coming right?".

2. The Mysterious Encounter

After the guy of the fox spirit has taken hit, all of the class shocked by seeing the man who had taken down the masked man, Is none other than ray. Usually, ray is physical strong than others, but he is considered as dumb due to his behaviour and moreover he is a spiritless person.

Ray sits quietly in the back of the classroom, his orange shirt blending with the sea of students. He was known for his physical strength but considered dumb due to his unconventional behaviour and the fact that he lacked a spirit. His classmates often underestimated him.

Suddenly, chaos erupted as a masked man burst into the classroom, causing everyone to gasp in shock. The intruder was swiftly taken down by a figure they least expected - Ray himself. In a matter of seconds, Ray incapacitated the assailant with his powerful blows. The room fell silent, and the students stared wide-eyed at the sight before them.

Two more masked men rushed towards Ray, their intentions clear. With lightning speed, he dodged their attacks and swiftly defeated them, sending one crashing into the classroom wall. The class bully, John, who always made fun of Ray, was tossed into the room by another masked man. Ray's eyes narrowed as memories of John's taunting flooded his mind.

(Ray reminds of how John bullies him and laughs at him.)

A cold voice cut through the tension, as Ray addressed John with a hint of mockery, "Hey John, I thought you were going to take care of them all. Looks like I have to clean up this mess." John's face flushed with a mixture of embarrassment and shame. But Ray's expression softened, and he added, "Just kidding, John.

I actually enjoy your jokes. You're like a good friend to me." John's eyes widened with surprise, a hint of happiness gracing his features.

Over in the corner, Jenny, a top student in the class, used her spirit to subdue a man who had targeted her. With a mischievous smile, she whispered, "Sweet dreams" to the unconscious intruder. Only one masked man remained, who quickly retreated from the classroom, signalling for reinforcements.

As the chaos subsided, Ray and Jenny locked eyes, a flood of memories rushing back. They had spent the summer chatting and becoming good friends, bonding over their shared academic excellence. Ray's fascination with history and Jenny's knowledge of the peacock spirit had fueled many captivating conversations. However, a misunderstanding had led to a clash between them, leaving a bitter aftertaste in their friendship.

(Ray reminds of the clash and turns sad.)

But in the present moment, there was no time for reflection. The masked men's reinforcements stormed into the classroom, armed and ready for a fight. Ray's mind raced, devising a strategy to handle the situation. With a calm demeanour, he faced his opponents head-on.

Then the fight starts and the mob came up on the ray, then ray with a clam mind and a hand sign saying some words, suddenly all of the class and mask men are being shocked as the fat in the body of ray was turning into his muscles.

(Rays memories of a man talking about a” technique that a human can turn a body muscle into fat or body fat to muscle but it is a very ancient technique that spies of old time used for disguise it is Body Transmutation Art”)

All of the people in class had been shocked due the appearance of the ray that his real face had been very beautiful and his body is just op. that some of the girls in the class are blushed by seeing him.

As we know ray doesn't have any spirit he have to fight them with bare hands and the mob forced on the ray, ray started with a guy using his full palm ray have given a strong blow on the man heart and chanted something by closing his eyes, the man had fallen at a distance to outside of the class, as another man came to see him and asked him “r u feeling well” the fallen guy replied “I had taken a strong blow, but I am feeling like my energy had been drained away.”

The other was confused and turns his looks to ray as his Palm was in the straight position and glowing with a colour, all of the people in the class are amazed by seeing that glow but ray doesn't have any spirit.

Then the others also attacked ray, but ray was simply handling the mob by just changing the hand signs, he was just fighting with bare hands without a spirit power, but he is using the power of his enemies that confused the people around, as all known that ray was physically overpowered(op), but with the addition of the muscle power and energy absorbed from enemies he was just un-beatable, he had taken down all of his enemies.

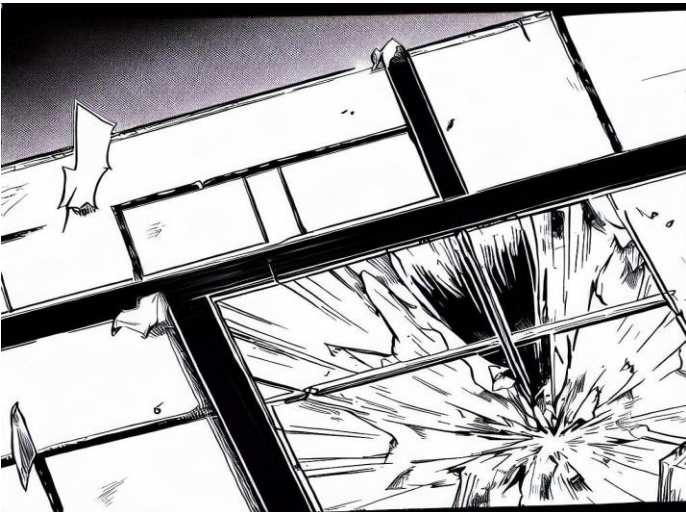

Then he peacefully standing in the class beside a window Infront of jenny and beside of jenny there was Julie. He was going to talk with the both of them, suddenly a guy had given a power blow to ray

The blow was very powerful, with just one blow ray had sent out of the building through breaking the window. The man was so powerful and looking so powerful and cruel that he the spirit of wooly rhinoceros it is an ancient animal it is so powerful.

After sending ray outside of the class with a powerful blow, the man was going to capture jenny, he was raising his hand to jenny, The powerful man with the spirit of the wooly rhinoceros, to Jenny: "Come with me quietly, and nobody else has to get hurt.", meanwhile ray on the ground is unconscious and getting a memory of something.

3.Unexpected Ally

After sending ray outside of the class with a powerful blow, the man was going to capture jenny, he was raising his hand to jenny, The powerful man with the spirit of the wooly rhinoceros to Jenny "Come with me quietly, and nobody else has to get hurt.", meanwhile ray on the ground is unconscious and getting a memory of something.

(Ray is dreaming the memory of the chatting and talking with jenny).

In summer vacation ray had chatted with jenny, the most attractive in class and the best spirit user in the class, and also Julie she is also beautiful and she is also a non-spirit user just like ray. They both had become good friends to ray and Levi had become best friend to ray and they both talks daily in phone call or in chat as with Julie and jenny also.

In his dream-like state, Ray recalled the conversations he had with Jenny during their summer vacation. They had spent hours chatting and getting to know each other. Jenny, with her striking beauty and exceptional spirit powers as the user of the Peacock spirit, had captured Ray's attention. Alongside them, Julie, a non-spirit user like Ray, had also become a close friend. They formed a strong bond, supporting and encouraging each other in their endeavours.

During their conversations, Jenny had shared stories about her family and the unique abilities of the Peacock spirit. Ray marvelled at the versatility and power of her spirit, which could heal people mentally and induce sleep with her voice. Jenny's tales fascinated Ray, and he, in turn, shared his passion for history, often delving into long discussions about ancient civilizations and their fascinating stories.

As the days goes on, he has become best friends as with Julie, ray and Julie encourage each other as like brother and sister as they both doesn't have any spirits.

However, their friendship took an unexpected turn when rumours started circulating in their college. Some classmates, envious of Jenny's popularity and spirit abilities, spread false gossip about her and Ray being in a romantic relationship. Jenny, consumed by anger and misunderstanding, believed that Ray had initiated the rumours. Despite Ray's attempts to explain the truth, she refused to listen, cutting off all communication with him, Ray felt very sad about that and shares this about with Julie, she encouraged him and ray got a guilt feel due to losing a good friend.

(As the memories are fading and coming to present).

The man with the wooly rhinoceros' spirit was trying to lay hand on jenny it seems like but he tries to catch Julie, as he was getting near, jenny uses her peacock power to set the man to asleep, but it doesn't work on him and she gets a feeling of fear in heart.

(The guy with rhino spirit with a loud laugh)

“Do you think that trick works on me? I had an ancient spirit that the ancient animals very hard to hypnotize so you can't defeat me you little tramp... he ahha...”.

(Jenny reminds reminds about the types of spirits in the world, there are 4 categories of spirits they are Normal animals – dog, snake, monkey and their different breeds.

Ancient animals – dinosaurs and animals which are extinct from earth.

Mythical animals – imaginary creatures like dragon, phoenix and kappa some of them are pets to gods.

God spirits – there are 7 God spirits including blue dragon, red phoenix, black tiger and white whale.

In all of them God spirits are different level, after them the ancient animals are very powerful and the mythical animals have mythical powers that some of them are unknown.)

After hearing his words jenny lost her confidence and stopped her attempts to hypnotize him, she just closed her eyes and thinking what to do, the rhino guy is trying to hit her in the moment of taking blow john had come it the middle and took the blow as he has a spirit of elephant, he has high durability so he takes less damage

(John with the look of love to jenny)

Jenny had asked john why does he taken the blow instead of her, john replied to her “because I like you. (With very low voice), I am so sorry that I had raised rumour about you and ray, coz you both are getting very close, so I am very jealous of it”, jenny becomes stun by hearing it and felt of disgrace.

The man with rhinoceros' spirit was getting ready to hit jenny, he raised his leg and with loud laugh he was moving his leg in the air and before he hitting her, from the window where ray was blown out, there was a voice of a lady, she was sitting on the broken window she was saying” "Hey, hey, you bully!" the girl called out to the man. "It's not right to lay a hand on a woman."

The girl placed her leg between jenny and the rhino man's leg which was going to hit jenny, and all of the students in class are looking at her with the eyes of the fascinating, she was amazingly beautiful and gorgeous her voice is just like of an angel. She is like a 20 in age as like the students in the class.

The man with shocking face asked her” who the hell are you jerk?”. Curiosity and awe filled the classroom as all eyes turned to the girl. She introduced herself as Max, the user of the White Whale spirit.

With those words, all of the class and the masked man are amazed and students in the class are stand up and the lady used her bare palm to blow away the man. The man with his last consciousness shouted to all of his men to come to that class.

Spirit Within

4. The Rage

Curiosity and awe filled the classroom as all eyes turned to the girl. She introduced herself as Max, the user of the White Whale spirit, and her captivating

With a single blow from her bare palm, Max sent the masked man flying, leaving the entire class astonished. In his last moments of consciousness, the man shouted for his comrades to join him in the classroom.

A swarm of masked individuals quickly gathered outside the classroom, with up to 50 members of the group assembling. The man resembling a rhino warned them about Max's status as a spirit commander in the D.W.P.T, wielding the power of the White Whale, one of the god spirits. Panic set in among the masked individuals, and one of them hurriedly ran outside to make a call for reinforcements.

"Boss, we have a problem here!" the man urgently relayed over the phone. "We're facing the White Whale, and we need help as soon as possible, sir." On the other end of the call, the person responded in shock, realizing that there were two formidable opponents. "Hold on, I'm sending reinforcements," he instructed. "In the worst-case scenario, I'll send them and join you as soon as possible." The call ended, leaving the masked man hopeful for the imminent arrival of support...

Inside the classroom, Max questioned the masked man who had attacked them, her voice surprisingly calm and composed. As the man who had gone to call for reinforcements entered the room, he reassured his allies, urging them not to panic and stating that their boss would soon be there. Max wore a cunning smile on her face, seemingly unfazed by the impending danger.

(Max with cunning smile on her face.)

"Okay, guys, I'm bored. Shall we start?" Max declared, and all the masked men, armed with weapons, launched their attacks. Max employed an unknown martial art style, reminiscent of Ray's own skills. She effortlessly displayed her immense physical strength and incredible speed, swiftly taking down even the strongest opponents. The students in the class watched in awe, fascinated by her prowess.

(Mean while outside of the class on the ground where ray is laying down with an unconsciousness.)

He had memory of his childhood in that, everyone was laughing that ray was so pale, weak and spiritless, one of the kid kicks rays and laughs at him and make fun of him, However, two other kids, including Max, came to his defence, causing the bully to flee, and they both encourages ray, after that they visit another girl in the hospital, who was presumably their friend. Tears welled up in their eyes as they saw her lying in bed.

(Coming to the present in the classroom.)

Max swiftly defeated ten enemies in a row before taking a step back, gesturing with her hands and preparing for her next move. With her palms joined together, she chanted, "Aqua Style: Hell Needles." Instantly, needles made of water materialized, and Max swung her hand, sending the needles hurtling towards the enemies. Some managed to dodge the attack, but those struck by the needles fell to the ground, unable to move. Max explained that her "Hell Needles" were made of highly salted water, capable of immobilizing anyone hit in vital spots.

(Max inner words" how much time does he take to wake up" with a disgrace voice)

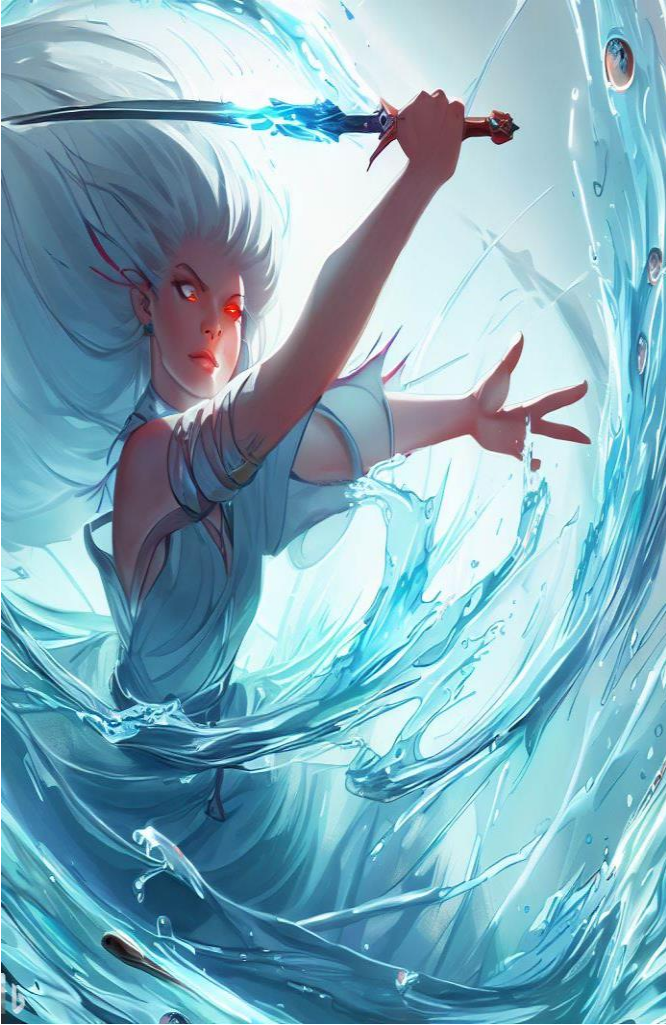

The enemies are continuously attacking her and she attacks them with a smaller attack, she doesn't use bigger attacks due to they may affect the students in the class and a guy attack one of the students in the front row, max quickly takes him out and makes some signs and place her hand on the boy and the wound heals as max whale spirits can also heals the wounds.

Growing increasingly angry at the attackers' disregard for innocent lives, Max's tone turned fierce as she admonished them. Summoning a solid sword made of water, she unleashed a furious assault, slashing through the men with unbridled rage. Striking them repeatedly, she displayed her overwhelming power, leaving everyone in the class amazed. Levi, captivated by the immense spiritual energy radiating from Max's sword swings, could only wonder at the power of the god spirits. Fear gripped the remaining men, and they fled in terror, but Max pursued them relentlessly, slashing them down one by one.

(Ray has deeply connected the memory of his childhood.)

While this intense battle unfolded, a masked individual outside the college noticed Ray lying on the ground and proceeded to kick him while tauntingly calling him a jerk. As the kicks roused Ray from his unconscious state, he found his memories fading away, replaced by an unknown voice.

(As by the kicks his memory was fading away, instead of memory ray hears a voice.)

Ray: what's happening I can't move my body.

An unknown voice: hey brat! Had you forgotten about me, let me switch with you.

(At the inside of ray, he looks the way of the voice coming and he sees two eyes that are blue in colour and feel of power dwelling to him.)

Ray: no! you may cause trouble.

The voice: go to hell you brat, I am gonna do it.

(Suddenly rays catch the leg of the man kicking him and he opens his and his eyes are blue in colour and a blue aura surrounds him.)

The man kicking ray says "who the hell are you? leave my leg.", and ray throws him away and senses something from the class and says (with a base voice of a monster) "is she here".

5.Reunion

(Suddenly rays catch the leg of the man kicking him and he opens his and his eyes are blue in colour and a blue aura surrounds him.)

The man says " who the hell are you? leave my leg.", and ray throws him away and senses something from the class and says (with a base voice of a monster) " is she here".

With a swift motion of his hand, a strong gust of wind forms at the college, carrying Ray as he flies towards his class. As he enters, he witnesses Max unleashing her fury upon the masked men with her aqua sword, exhibiting immense strength and brute force.

Ray's gaze falls upon the front rows of the class, where Julie and Jenny sit, and with the same monstrous tone, he speaks, "I see, I was right, she is here." Turning his attention to Max, he is suddenly interrupted as she splashes water on his face, her anger evident, "Hey, you fool! How much longer do you need to wake up? Come help me!", All of the students see the ray with that aura and fascinated.

(Ray with an anger look scream and shouts at max with the monster base.)

Ray, consumed by anger, responds with a roar in his monstrous voice, "Hey, you little brat! Are you mocking me? I am going to kill you!" With rising fury, Ray raises his hand to the sky, causing the clouds to darken, and a lightning bolt descends into his grasp. He hurls it towards Max, who swiftly dodges, narrowly avoiding its impact. The bolt strikes the masked men instead, rendering them unconscious.

Amazed and fearful, Max turns back to face Ray upon landing on the ground. Overwhelmed, she apologizes, and Ray raises his hand to summon another lightning bolt, threateningly declaring, "This time it won't miss, you idiot." Max combines her hands, creating an aqua shield to block the incoming bolt.

(Ray moves his hands to throw.)

In a matter of seconds, Ray regains his consciousness and redirects the lightning bolt outside where no one is present. He exclaims in a normal voice, "It just missed, whew."

Max just rushed to ray and jumps to him and hugs him in the midair, due to the force she came at him they both rotates in air and in seconds max throws ray to the ground with a force, ray falls down and max lifts him up by catching his collar, slaps him, and tearfully expresses, "What are you doing here, you dumb, idiot, stupid? I missed you so much. It's been three years, and I've been so lonely without both of you." She embraces him tightly, and Ray, also in tears, replies, "I missed you too," reciprocating the embrace.

(Ray had a memory of playing with max and another boy in their childhood.)

Ray's mind drifts to a childhood memory of playing with Max and their third friend. They are seen running, with Max and the other boy leading the way, while Ray struggles to keep up. When Ray falls, his friends rush to his side, helping him up. Max teasingly mocks his inability to walk properly, and they engage in playful banter.

In the other scene ray and other two guys sit on table of a park with Ray and Max playfully fighting. And the third guy asks these two “hey guys can I ask you something, what are you gone be in future when you grew up” and max says “I am going to be stronger than both of you and one of best spirit users” and then ray says” I am going to be strongest in the world and then I can protect you guys from any danger.” And max again makes fun of him” what you become the strongest in the world without a spirit and yet you don’t know how to walk also, don’t fear I will protect you in the future.” Max and the other boy smiles and ray again fight with max.

Then max asks the third child “what should you do after you grew up?” then the boy replies “I am going to cure her at any cost, until then I won’t take rest and then all of us can live happily, then max I may need your help as your spirit had a power of healing people and ray, I may don’t need you I think(funny 😄)”, ray shouts to both of them” see guys I will surpass you at all costs.”.

(Ray smiles by remembering them. The memory fades away)

Max releases Ray from the tight embrace, expressing her longing for their absent friend, believing it to be impossible for him to be present. Meanwhile, outside the college, numerous cars and helicopters arrive, serving as reinforcements for the masked men, numbering around 500. Max and Ray observe the incoming forces from within the classroom. Max defiantly remarks, "Hey, you dumb, are you ready for this?" To which Ray responds by igniting his fists.

6. Commander

Max gently released Ray from their heartfelt embrace, her voice trembling with a mix of longing and despair. Tears welled up in her eyes, revealing the depth of her emotions. The two friends stood in their classroom, watching the scene unfolding outside the college. A fleet of cars and two helicopters had gathered, bringing reinforcements for the masked man's army. Over 500 men. Both max and ray sees it from inside the class and max” hey you dumb are you ready for this!” ray replies by lighting his fists “I am always ready”.

Max says “there are too many of them can we defeat them, and more over you are not useful there, wait second I taught you don’t have a spirit then how can you use thunder powers just like blue dragon.” And ray replies “that’s a long story I will tell you later, as if now I am the user of the bule dragon spirit, but I can’t control and use it and I have to fight with my own abilities, you them right!”, by hearing that max and the students in the class are amazed and max says “what really when did that happen, you didn’t tell me about it you fool (punches ray oh head), then max comes to seriousness and says “ now tell what is your plan captain ?” as she calls ray as captain all the students had a fascinating look on their faces and ray asks “ are you still a commander in D.W.P.T?” max replies that “ yes, but why.” And then ray says “I guess there will be number of enemies coming in the way so we may be need reinforcements, so you should have to summon them here and until then we two should have to take care of them. Now coming to the plan we both have to fight the enemies outside, first of all we have to destroy the helicopters and then you and me are going to front-lines to beat the crap out of them, next at the all entrances of the building there should be five talented students, they have to be good in close combat with their spirits and each team have to be led by a teacher and in the and finally in every class there have to be a strong person to take care of an enemy if they enter by any chance and all windows have to close and people stationed at the entrance can use the weapons of these fallen guys (pointing the people who had beaten by him and max) and rest of the people help the injured in any class and tie up these guys and Levi you have to tell the situation to principal sir and plan too and select good members to the squads and I leave this work to you monkey and that's all is there any doubts to anybody." Then max asks that "first off all, why are these men attacking the college.", the ray replies that "they are here for Julie." And all the students look at Julie surprisingly and max "who is that, why are they searching for her?", then ray "there is no time for this, we have to go and Julie you should go and hide in a safer place, all of you proceed." And ray and max jumps out of the class through the broken window.

Levi tells all his classmates “ok guys I am going to principle and each of you have to circulate the all classes and select strong people from every class and assemble at staff room and from our class I select john (elephant spirit), peter(spider spirit) you two select the remaining people and Julie and jenny you both a hide in the principle room that is in centre of the college as principle and jenny should take care of Julie and that is what ray told me and that’s all move forward.”

All the students runs and out for their duties and Levi, jenny and Julie runs to principal room and they explained principle as what happening and tells him the plan and principle, Jenny and Julie stayed in the principal room and Levi runs to staff room and while running Levi words in self "Ray was so amazing, it's no wonder he is a captain of D.W.P.T, as look how he had taken control of the situation and planned well along"

And Levi rushes to the staffroom there he decides the squads and tell them to set off to their places there are 5 entrances in the college and there is a secret entrance too in the college it is only known to some to students like, as Levi also knows it and arranges six squads and teachers and all are set at their position and the remaining teachers stayed outside of the principal room for protection.

On the other side Ray and Max enters into the ground and the two helicopters are flying above their heads and Ray looks at them and says "hey fish girl! The choppers are so noisy, I want to blow them off. "And Max ""Who are you calling a fish, you dummy? Anyway, they're getting on my nerves. Let's take them down." With a synchronized leap into the air, Ray and Max propelled themselves towards the helicopters. And Ray's fist had lightened and he says "there is some energy that I sucked from those jerks." And Max has closed her eyes and again opens them they are white in colour" until now I had held my attacks due to safety of those students but now there are no one can stop me ", Max made big water spears with her spirit power and throws it to helicopter and the spear slashes through it and the helicopter falls down and blasts

On the other hand, ray closes his fist and a blue aura surrounds his hand in a large scale that is the energy he drained from the other guys attacked the class and he launches a heavy punch on the engine part of the chopper the engine blasts and he grab the reaming part of the chopper with his bare hands and throws it away with his full energy, the chopper falls on the some of the guys on the ground.

And they both lands on the ground and they walk towards the 500 men and they all charges at them and some of them runs of the college to enter from the backside of the college and some other form sides and max says” hey you captain don’t die on me” and ray laughs for it and replies “same for you fish girl.”

The mob comes in then max summons her spirit weapon which is a white trident that can control water at will and while summoning she says “white whale summoning: trident of 7 oceans” and ray hits the first person in them with his palm to drain his energy and he drains it and his fist lightens and he is fighting with a mob of them and on the other side max uses her water powers and attacks with the trident also the men are drastically falling some of the men throw smoke bombs with sleeping gas into the ground the area covered with it as the men are masked they had no effect of it, max creates a mask with her water powers, but ray had fallen for it he sustained with it for some time and later he falls down and the mobs surround him and they are aiming their weapons at him and ready to kill him.

(Ray again having the memories of the other guy.

7. Awaken Blue

But ray had fallen for it he sustained with it for some time and later he falls down and the mobs surround him and they are aiming their weapons at him and ready to kill him.

(Ray again having the memories of the other friend.)

In that memory his friend was talking to the blue dragon, the voices are faint, He can barely hear their voices and the memory was fading then his friend comes to him , and in the other scene blue dragon takes control over the rays body and he sees the mob around the ray aiming their weapons within a second a large thunder had fallen on the mob, then ray(blue dragon) fly up into the air and shooting thunders on the men in the ground, meanwhile max also taking down lots of enemies so easily with her water powers and using her trident

Ray in his memory talking with his friend, ray sees his face, he is best friend from the childhood and his name is noir and he looks so beautiful, strong and handsome and ray feels purity around his presence then noir talks to ray.

Noir: it's been a long time, I hope you are doing well, as well I see you every day from your inside.

Ray: (crying) I have been missing you all this time, I feel something is missing without you I can't do this.

Noir: what is thing that bothers you, I known about you more than anyone else, the ray that I know can do anything.

Ray: It's so hard, I am not talented as you are, I can't control blue dragon as you can.

Noir: no, it's not true, you so much talented than me or anyone, the ray that I know doesn't have any spirit, but he was capable of creating a technique that no one can use, with that technique he can use spirit powers of his opponents to save his comrades, he was an such a brilliant that he can be the best strategist in the world, If I can do it then you can do it so easily my dear rival, more over don't try to control him work together with him.

By saying these words noir presence slowly disappearing, ray was watching him with tears in his eyes and as soon noir disappears, blue dragon appears Infront of ray, ray downs his head and talks to blue dragon

Ray: “master dragon! I need your help, I cannot fight alone without your support, I need your support as you supported noir, please help me.”.

Dragon: “hey you brat, you are so annoying, but today onwards we both are friends and partners, if in case anything happens to you that you can’t control, then I have to take over your body remember it, you’re just like opposite to him, you can use my powers as you wish.”

(After that blue dragon enters into the body of ray, then his body surrounds with a blue aura)

Coming to reality, ray comes to consciousness and there half of the men are taken down by blue dragon and max and ray says” hey you fish girl, you can take rest if you want, I can take them on my own, you go and help to the students in the college and before going don't die."

Max replies "same to you fool, I am going to save them and you better not to lose by them.", max goes into the college and ray stands Infront of the masked men remaining, in his face there was faith and a blue aura surrounds him and he walks towards the men they are about 250 men in the ground with weapons and they are coming towards ray and flies into the sky using wind element and ray rises his hand into the air and moves his hands to down by saying "thunder summoning: rain of thunder arrows" by saying that a rain of arrows which are made of thunders and they are piercing the enemies and some of them are dodging the arrows using shields and taking cover and ray creates sword using thunder and then moves quick towards the enemies and slashing them with his strength and a powerful man gives him a dash that ray flies backward and then ray quickly throws his sword towards the man and moves at him very quick and punches the man using his strength and the fist enhanced with the thunder and wind element that punches was so powerful, with that strength any person with any strength can be taken down and he blows away the enemies with that punches and so many of the masked men are feared and running for their lives but ray chases every one of them and punching them and at that there was some vehicles at a distance coming towards the college loaded with the masked men and ray flies towards the vehicles and blow them away with his thunder powers and returning to the college.

Meanwhile in the college the squads that are placed at entrance are avoiding the masked man very efficiently but there are three problems that students are facing, first off, all there was struggle at back entrance of the college and at the class of the ray where the window which was broken while fighting and max helped them at very quick.

And there was a struggle at the terrace of the college, Levi and his squad stationed at the terrace, there are so many masked men, they had used smoke to confuse them and the masked men had also attacked the two of the 5 people in the squad, they are trying to attack the teacher with the squad and Levi managed to save the teacher and that makes the masked men mad and they targeted Levi to attack and Levi was escaping the attacks, but one of them targeted Levi from the back and there is no way for the Levi to escape it.

Ray sees the whole situation from at a distance and there is no chance for him to reach there and save his there is only one way to save Levi that he has to launch a long-range attack but he doesn't know how to do it, in that situation of he closed his eyes and taught about noir fighting style and remembers something he thinks about a way and takes a deep breath and combines his hands and says "dragon summoning: bow of eternal sky" then he summons a bow which is blue in colour and he raises the bow into the air and pulls the string and there creates the arrow using the thunder element and he aims the arrow at the man who is about to attack Levi and releases and enhance its speed using the wind element and moves so quick pierce through the man's heart and he falls down and ray takes down all the enemies with that bow and the Levi took care of the damaged squad mates,

And the main problem is some of the masked men are managed to enter into the college and took down the teachers in-front of the principal room and kept the hands on the handle of the door and they opened the door.

8. Shading Memories

And the main problem is some of the masked men are managed to enter into the college and took down the teachers in-front of the principal room and kept the hands on the handle of the door and they opened the door.

But there is no jenny or Julie there is only principal of the college sitting in his chair holding a weapon in hand and the masked men are surrounded by the student squads and they start fight, some of the masked men are searching in the other places.

In other scene there is the boss of the masked man appeared in their base, his face was covered in dark he was saying “oh! Three of them at a time it’s so amazing, I need to capture three of them at once, send 1000 of the special soldiers and with one of our commanders”, the assistant beside him tells it in a transponder.

In the other scene the men are searching for Julie in the college, where Julie and jenny are hidden in a locked store room and the men sees the locked room and breaks the lock and there is Julie but not jenny and when one of the men entered into the room and suddenly jenny ambushed him from the sides and set him asleep and jumps into the shadows and all of the men entered at a time, then jenny uses a weapon to stop them, but there is so many of them, she can’t control and Julie alerts ray in a transponder and ray was taking care of the men outside and he was rushing into the college.

Then suddenly there was a person fallen from the sky Infront of the ray, the man was so powerful and aura is like broken one and it is dark and he says “there there, where are going man. I come here for you”. Ray senses a large number of people coming towards college they were sent by the masked men leader and their spirits aura is so different and they are not like humans and they are up to 1000 of them.

The man Infront of the ray is muscled and looking strong and he moves his hands to control the rocks around him and by seeing that ray got amazed and he strikes him with a thunder and them block the attack by manipulating the ground around him ray to himself “it’s is the power of the black tiger it is impossible, but his presence is not like of black tiger it is something else.”

The man throws a rock towards ray, then ray blast it away using wind and flies into the sky to deviate the man away from the college and man also flies into the sky by standing on piece of rock and makes it flying, he was so fast that ray can’t launch an attack and ray uses wind to boost himself and flies at more height and the man was also following him.

It getting worse in the college as the masked man entered into the room and jenny was fighting with them and Julie stops them with a weapon and a masked man suddenly grabs jenny hand and throws her away, on other hand Julie can’t stop so many of them with her weapon and they are rushing to Julie and then Julie in a despair and thinking about her past life.

(Julie is reminding her backstory...)

In her memory Julie was little girl of age 7, she was with her mom and dad, her dad is a soldier in D.W.P.T and her mother was a doctor in D.W.P.T and her parents are so generous and they are so good to her and she likes her dad very much and she wanted to be like him.

But Julie doesn't have any spirit, but she wanted to be a member in D.W.P.T and her parents encouraged her much that she can do anything without a spirit and her father tells her about a little boy in D.W.P.T was taking training without a spirit and he has a strong will and hardworking and tells her that one day he can stronger one and inspires her that can she also be like him.

The childhood of Julie was going so happily, but suddenly one day at her age of nine, she went outside picnic with her parents on the occasion of their Anniversary and they went a lake-side view in the forest near their house and her mom was telling about their first meeting in the hospital of the D.W.P.T, later that they both fell in love and ended up marrying and they had Julie and the three of them are enjoying very much.

Suddenly Julie's father had been stabbed by some bandits and the bandits are so strong her mother has no chance against them, they both end up dying, by seeing her parent's death Julie went into a trauma and she stunned all of a sudden and one of the bandits came to close to her and at same time she lost her consciousness and at the time of she recovered and woke up she was surrounded by the people of the D.W.P.T and there are 3 dead bodies are there, two of them are her parents and the one is unable to identify as it was burn and Julie cried a lot and she got the trauma from that time, as every time she was in danger she loses her consciousness.

Coming back to reality as Jenny loses her grip to the masked man all of them are against Julie lost consciousness again, every time she loses her consciousness, she sees a girl with red dress standing beside her and the girl was as same age as Julie and this time she sees the girl and the girl was looking same like Julie but she was so beautiful and attractive than Julie and she was looking at Julie and says "don't worry I am here save you" and Julie replies " who are you, I can sense a divine presence from you and why are you saving me.", then the girl replies" I am saving you because it is the duty of the strong to protect the weak, so that's why" and the girl gets fire on her hands and Julie amazed by seeing that and asks “ hey that’s is fire power so you are the red phoenix.” Then the girl replies “no I am not, but I can use red phoenix power, from today onwards you too can use that power.”

In the reality a man was going to catch Julie with his hand and in a fraction of seconds the masked man near Julie blasted away and jenny with her last consciousness sees Julie with a red aura around her, but she senses the presence of someone else within her.

Adi Kotha

Julie uses her powers to fight with the masked men and the masked men are terrified by seeing her aura and all the people are sensing her aura and all are amazed and by the time max reached there, she sees Julie with red aura and got fascinated.

9. Blazing Scorch

Julie's powers radiate with a fearsome aura, causing terror among the enemies and awe among the onlookers. Meanwhile, Ray, locked in combat with the formidable rock-powered man, finds himself surrounded by chaos as a special army of a thousand men storms into the college.

In a momentary lapse of awareness, Ray becomes vulnerable to a powerful attack from his opponent. However, just as the attack is about to strike, another identical attack emerges from behind Ray, colliding with the initial assault and nullifying its impact. Ray turns to see a man standing atop a nearby building, engulfed in a black aura and wearing the uniform of a D.W.P.T commander. This man reveals himself as a fellow user of the black tiger spirit and confidently announces his allegiance to Ray's squad.

With gratitude, Ray rushes back into the college where Julie and Max are utilizing their powers to shatter the bones of the masked men. Max, fascinated by Julie's incredible power, confronts Ray, berating him for being outside during such a critical situation. Ray explains that there is a formidable adversary outside, wielding earth element powers similar to the black tiger, but with a much darker presence. Fortunately, their newly arrived commander, the black tiger user, saved Ray. However, a new problem arises as additional soldiers, distinguishable from the rest, approach the college.

The invading army enters the premises, leading to a fierce confrontation between the black tiger user, Kuro, and the mysterious adversary. In the midst of battle, Kuro questions the adversary, introducing himself as a commander from the D.W.P.T. The adversary reveals that he, too, possesses black tiger powers but infused with shadow, and his mission is to capture all the divine spirit users, particularly the red phoenix girl. Their clash escalates as Kuro manipulates a massive rock hurled at him by the adversary, showcasing the true extent of their powers.

As the fight rages on, Ray, Julie, and Max strategize on how to deal with the overwhelming number of soldiers. One soldier hurls a spear towards Kuro, catching him off guard. However, in a swift and unexpected turn of events, an arrow intercepts the spear, saving Kuro from harm. Ray devises a plan, assigning Julie and himself to handle the soldiers while Kuro and Max confront the powerful adversary. With unity and coordinated attacks, they hope to overcome the odds.

Ray and Julie engage the soldiers head-on, urging each other to remain vigilant and protect one another's backs. Max, boasting proficiency in both long and short-range combat, unleashes a fiery assault from the ground, incinerating hundreds of soldiers at once. However, their enemies possess the ability to regenerate, rendering their efforts futile. Ray attempts to impale the soldiers' hearts with arrows, but even that fails to prevent their relentless onslaught. The situation becomes increasingly desperate, leaving the trio at a loss.

Ray, determined to find a solution, unleashes a barrage of wind attacks, targeting every part of the soldiers' bodies. Though their regeneration persists, Ray focuses his aim on the soldiers' heads. In a moment of realization, he discovers that the soldiers' true forms are not human, but rather grotesque creatures resembling animals. Julie recoils in fear at the sight, but Ray persists, eliminating one soldier after another by piercing their heads with well-aimed arrows. As the soldiers fall, they disintegrate into ashes, while a dark energy dissipates into the air.

Quickly adapting to the new strategy, Ray urges Julie to focus their attacks on the soldiers' heads. Together, they continue their assault, determined to turn the tide. Meanwhile, Ray decides to engage in close combat, knowing that defeating a thousand soldiers solely through ranged attacks is an arduous task. He leaps into their midst, utilizing his thunder and wind powers to devastating effect. However, an unexpected attack from behind nearly catches him off guard, until the assailant is struck down from above by reinforcements.

Ray gazes upward, witnessing the arrival of the D.W.P. T's specially designed flying base, from which numerous soldiers emerge. Julie, filled with astonishment, questions Ray about the flying base, to which he explains that he had a hand in its design. With the arrival of reinforcements, the battle takes another turn, as the soldiers of D.W.P.T join the fray.

As the battle rages on, there are numerous casualties on both sides. Despite the fact that the enemies are not human, Ray is determined to bring the fight to a swift conclusion. He carefully considers a strategy and a brilliant idea strikes him. Jumping into the air, he combines his hands and his eyes glow blue. With a commanding voice, he exclaims, "Dragon Style: Clones of Raijin!" Instantly.

the clouds surrounding the college turn dark, and thunderous clones of Raijin, the thunder god of Japanese mythology, materialize. Each clone wields a bow and, upon Ray's gesture, releases a barrage of lightning-fast arrows at the soldiers. The enemy forces are decimated, fading away one by one. The members of D.W.P.T also lend their assistance, fighting alongside Ray.

In a remarkably short span of time, the entire enemy army is cleared. However, Ray's extensive use of energy takes its toll, and he begins to lose consciousness, on the verge of falling. Fortunately, Max swiftly catches him and exclaims, "Hey, you fool! You saved the day." Meanwhile, as Max's back is momentarily left unguarded, the adversary seizes the opportunity and launches an attack. However, Julie and Kuro quickly intervene, using their powers to deflect the attack.

Max entrusts Ray to Levi, who is positioned on the terrace of the college, and rushes back into battle with the adversary. The adversary finds himself outmatched against the combined forces of Kuro, Max, and Julie. Determined, he closes his eyes, clasps his hands together, and utters, "We, the Rise of Umbranox, will rule this world." A sinister aura envelops him, filling those nearby with terror. With a commanding tone, he declares, "Dark Style: Summoning Great Dark Tiger." Suddenly, an earthquake shakes the area near the college, and a colossal tiger, emanating a dark aura, emerges from the ground.

Witnessing this spectacle, the onlookers are filled with fear and awe. Ray, slowly regaining consciousness, catches a glimpse of the scene with blurry eyes. He tightly grasps Levi's hand, gathering strength and resolve for the battle that lies ahead.

10. Rise of Umbranox

Witnessing the spectacle unfolding before them, the onlookers are filled with a mix of fear and awe. Ray, slowly regaining consciousness, catches a glimpse of the scene with blurry eyes. He tightly grasps Levi's hand, gathering strength and resolve for the battle that lies ahead.

As the colossal dark tiger emerges from the ground, the atmosphere becomes charged with an eerie anticipation. Its massive form casts a daunting shadow over the battlefield, its dark aura engulfing the surroundings. The onlookers watch in both terror and fascination, realizing the magnitude of the impending conflict. Max, Julie, and Kuro exchange determined glances, fully aware that their greatest challenge yet lies before them. Their hearts fill with determination as they prepare to face this formidable adversary. The dark tiger stands as a symbol of the opponent's power and malevolence.

The adversary, with a malevolent smirk on his face, revels in the power of the summoned dark tiger. He taunts his opponents, proclaiming that the Rise of Umbranox will dominate the world. His arrogance and confidence fuel the heroes' resolve, igniting a fire within them.

In response, Julie steps forward, her eyes burning with fiery resolve. She channels her inner strength, embracing the flames within her. With a deep breath, she unleashes her fire powers, creating a dazzling display of blazing flames that erupt from her hands. The flames dance with the wind, creating a mesmerizing inferno that engulfs the area. The intense heat radiates across the battlefield, threatening to consume everything in its path.

Max, in awe of Julie's unleashed power, joins in the assault. Utilizing her own unique abilities, she complements Julie's fire with her own elemental prowess. Together, they create a harmonious symphony of fire and other elements, preventing the scorching flames from spreading uncontrollably.

However, the fire attack infuriates the dark tiger, pushing it into a furious rage. With a powerful slash of its paw, it unleashes a devastating blow aimed at the heroes. Acting swiftly, Kuro intervenes, using his agility and mastery over earth manipulation to deviate the attack towards the nearby mountains. The impact creates a colossal hole, leaving everyone in awe and fear of the tiger's destructive power.

Ray comes to consciousness and looks at the tiger and terrifies and moving forward with very unease and the other max, Julie and Kuro want lunch an attack by combining their attack and the three joins their hands and amplifies their power and says “spirit combination: meteorites of burning sun” then suddenly chains made of water binds the tiger and there is a big meteorite fallen on the tiger and it takes a lot of damage and land around shakes a lot, then three of them blows a punch at same time on tiger and tiger flies into the sky and falls some far as the adversary is also on it, he falls one land and all of them taught they won, but the tiger stands on its feet.

As ray was waken, he asks Levi to take some of his energy and takes some using his technique of draining energy and he was able to stand and all four of them flies to tiger, both the tiger and the adversary stand up on their feet, they were still able to fight, as per rays’ side only Kuro and max are able to fight as they are experienced in using spirits.

Ray was out of energy and he had strategy, if he can hit the tiger than he can drain some energy, he taught so and he jumps to tiger and punches it very strong the tiger feels the pain, but ray can’t drain energy from it, he goes shock by that and the tiger is about to hit ray, Kuro stops it using a boulder and max catches ray and jumps away.

As ray was some injured from previous fights max heals him with her healing abilities and the adversary jumps on the tiger and keep a hand on tiger and other one on his heart and closes his eyes and he was chanting something and draining the energy of tiger into him and its energy is going it him all four of them sensing even something dark from him, but the man was draining energy feels the pain and falls down and too much of energy flowing in and pure dark vile appears around him, as max and Kuro senses something bad and makes barriers with their power and ray and Julie enhances them with their powers and the black vile blasts like a big bomb

. Suddenly, a massive explosion engulfs the area as the dark energy reaches its peak. The blast radiates with destructive force, shaking the land and sending shockwaves across the surroundings. Miraculously, the heroes manage to escape the brunt of the blast, but the aftermath leaves them battered and disoriented.

As they regain their composure, they discover that a surge of dark energy is ascending into the sky, signifying the defeat of the adversary. The people at the college, alarmed by the cataclysmic event, rush to their aid, offering assistance and protection.

Meanwhile, in another scene, the leader of the Rise of Umbranox observes the demise of his subordinate. Though the loss is significant, he commends the fallen adversary for his exceptional performance. He wastes no time in preparing for their next move, rallying his vast army and three commanders to launch an all-out attack.

Back at the college, Ray awakens to a mix of relief and trepidation. Max remains by his side, offering comfort and support. Their friends gather around, expressing their gratitude for Ray's heroism and his role in saving them all. The principal also arrives, extending his heartfelt thanks for Ray's bravery in protecting the students and the college.

However, the moment of respite is short-lived. Max receives a crucial call from the D.W.P.T headquarters, delivering alarming news. The Rise of Umbranox has launched a relentless assault on the headquarters, overpowering the defenders. Ray, Max, and Kuro immediately spring into action, enlisting Julie's aid and leaving behind soldiers to safeguard the college and assist the injured.

Boarding a Heli-carrier, the heroes ascend into the sky, racing towards the embattled headquarters. Their hearts are filled with determination, knowing that the fate of countless lives and the future hangs in the balance. On the other the rise of umbranox attacking the head-quarters.
